

Satellite radio has given to me the only answer to the progressive commercialization of Radio. The stations I listened to gave more and more time to advertisements which destroyed the relaxation that the music offered me. The regular radio programs acted as if they had no control over that and so replaced more and more of my listening time with commercials. With satellite radio a business has found a way around that and is giving me what I want out of radio.